

Observed pacing against the five model predictions

Error bars: +/-1 SD across races. Real races are more front-loaded than every model, and the last lap is not slower than the third, a finishing kick no cost-based model reproduces. M2's negative split has the wrong sign entirely. Descriptive only; single meet, no fitting.